

Request for Destruction of Records

- For use by an individual, his or her authorized representative, or the authorized representative of a corporation, trust, partnership, or tax-exempt entity to request the destruction of records under the Income Tax Act.
- You have to keep your records (including your electronic records) according to the timeframes provided in the Income Tax Act and the Income Tax Regulations. With few exceptions, you are required to keep your records for a minimum of six years from the end of the last tax year they relate to. For more information, see Information Circular IC78-10R5, Books and Records Retention/Destruction.
- This request applies only to records that you have to keep under legislation administered by the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA). The CRA does not have authority to approve the destruction of records that you have to keep under other federal, provincial/territorial, or municipal laws.
- Mail a completed form to your tax services office. To find your tax services office, go to cra.gc.ca/tso.
